FMP Receives OPM TMA Prime Contract Award

ALEXANDRIA, Va. – May 9, 2007 - Federal Management Partners, Inc. (FMP), a strategic consulting firm specializing in the delivery of human capital consulting services to the Federal government, announced today that it has received a prime contract award from the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) to provide Customized Human Capital Solutions to a wide range of Federal agencies.

This task order contract, which was issued under OPM's Training and Management Assistance Program (TMA), has a maximum value of $250 million over the life of the contract, including a one-year base period and four one-year options. OPM TMA provides agency customers with accelerated procurement procedures, experienced government program managers, and a performance guarantee.

“Since 1982, OPM TMA has played a key role in transforming human capital processes and programs throughout the Federal government,” said FMP CEO and Founder Tim Barnhart. “We look forward to leveraging our Federal HR expertise and solutions in support of this important government-wide program.”

A Small Business, FMP is a leader in the Federal human capital community in the areas of strategic workforce planning, pay-for-performance, workforce analysis, performance management, competency development, and HR system design.

Since its founding in 1991, FMP has been an important contributor to OPM TMA through its work on scores of TMA projects as a subcontractor. “Our long history with and deep knowledge of OPM TMA ensures that FMP will ‘hit the ground running’ to quickly become a successful participant in the program,” added Brian Dickson, FMP's TMA Program Manager.

FMP's teammates for the OPM TMA include: Sevatec, Inc.; The Wynhurst Group, LLC; and Watson Wyatt & Company.
